Rally set against proposed Plaquemines coal terminal

Plaquemines [http://www.nola.com/plaquemines/] and Jefferson Parish [http://topics.nola.com/tag/jefferson/posts.html] residents are being called by environmental activists to a "Coast Not Coal" event and protest march Saturday (July 18) to rally and prepare for its next fight against a proposed coal export terminal in Plaquemines.

A judge's ruling

[LATEST ENVIRONMENT STORIES]

The West Closure Complex: How it works
[http://www.nola.com/environment/index.ssf/2014/12/plaquemines_judge_rules_coal_e.html] in December invalidated a Louisiana Department of Natural Resources permit for the controversial RAM Terminals LLC coal export facility. The state Office of Coastal Management requested more information in March

RAM’s initial proposal called for building a plant that would process 6 million tons of coal annually on 600 acres on the Mississippi River [http://topics.nola.com/tag/mississippi-river/index.html] near Myrtle Grove, north of Ironton. Barges and railcars would transport coal from Illinois Basin to southern Plaquemines for mixing and storage before being shipped to Europe and Asia.

Gretna officials had called for rerouting such train traffic following residents' health concerns and fears [http://www.nola.com/politics/index.ssf/2014/08/residents_to_ask_gretna_city_c.html] about a decrease in their property values from uncovered coal cars rumbling through the West Bank.

The Jefferson Parish Council in February also asked [http://www.nola.com/environment/index.ssf/2015/02/jefferson_parish_council_calls.html] the Department of Natural Resources to hold public hearings to educate the public on potential environmental impacts.
Grace Morris, senior organizer at the Gulf Restoration Network [http://www.healthygulf.org/], said the Department of Natural Resources has committed to hold a public hearing before the agency moves forward on a permit decision.

"As we reconnect and refocus our efforts this Saturday, we’ll prepare to re-engage our friends, neighbors and allies to stop the RAM coal export terminal once and for all," Morris said in a statement announcing the Saturday event.

It is scheduled for 10 a.m. at the Saint Paul Baptist Church, 133 Bradish St., Port Sulphur [https://www.google.com/maps/place/St+Pauls+Baptist+Church/@29.6494022,-89.964883,17.02z/data=!4m2!3m1!1s0x0000c7e22970a972:0xe2e618b950856e9f!4m5!3m4!1s0x0000300f50f0d9d7:0x370d5570449e3056!8m2!3d29.6494001!4d-89.9644959].

Best of NOLA.com

- Why leave N.O. this summer with these 12 festivals?
- Latest news on Saints & summer training
- Latest from our NOLA Neighborhoods series

Registration on or use of this site constitutes acceptance of our User Agreement and Privacy Policy

© 2015 NOLA Media Group. All rights reserved (About Us).
The material on this site may not be reproduced, distributed, transmitted, cached or otherwise used, except with the prior written permission of NOLA Media Group.

Community Rules apply to all content you upload or otherwise submit to this site. Contact interactivity management.

Ad Choices